ABSTRACT

The bibliography cites 1,036 resources found in the Ventura College library which deal with the history and culture of the Chicano, the social and economic problems that oppress him, and the struggle to attain equality and justice. The materials, published between 1899 and 1975, are divided into reference books; general stack books which deal with philosophy, religion, social sciences, language, technology, the arts, literature, fiction, and history; and magazines and newspapers. The bibliography is comprehensive in that it takes into account the Indo Hispanic heritage of the Chicano; therefore books on Spain and the Indians of North America are included. A section is provided on how to locate the materials in the library. This section presents brief information on how to use and where to locate the subject catalog, author and title catalogs, bibliographic index, cumulative book index, subject guide to "Books in Print", business periodicals index, education index, psychological abstracts, Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin, Social Sciences and Humanities Index, the index to the U.S. Government publications, pamphlet material, and audiovisual material. A LIBRARY GUIDE TO CHICANO STUDIES
Library Research

Cinco de Mayo 1976

When doing research relating to Chicano Studies you must make a plan to tap the resources of the Ventura College Library. Here you will find a collection of the basic works which deal with the history and culture of the Chicano, the social and economic problems that oppress him, and the struggle to attain equality and justice. You will find some newspapers, periodicals and pamphlets that deal with the thoughts of and about the Chicano community.

This bibliography is comprehensive in that it takes into account the Indo Hispanic heritage of the Chicano; therefore the books on Spain and the Indians of North America have been included. As the Chicano is no ethnocentric we have also included materials that deal with our brothers in the Americas.
